

TEXAS BURLESQUE FESTIVAL MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Thank you for your interest in covering the Texas Burlesque Festival. We are happy to provide media credentials to outlets interested in covering our event. For the safety and privacy of the performers, attendees, audience, and staff we ask that anyone covering the event please abide by the following terms. If you agree to the terms and conditions, please fill out the form, and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

Terms & Conditions

- 1) The performer dressing rooms, bathrooms, staging areas, and backstage areas are off limits to photography. If you are a writer and would like access, please seek out the permission of the festival director or her appointed representative.
- 2) Absolutely NO flash photography
- 3) When referring to performers, please use their stage names only.
- 4) Please do not publish any photos of the performer's final reveal - i.e. when they are in their pasties and g-strings only.
- 5) Please refrain from blocking the view of the audience or production staff, including A/V stations, house photographers, or the sound booth.
- 6) If a member of the Texas Burlesque Festival asks you to move, or makes a request please comply in a polite and expedient manner.
- 7) Please provide a link to the article once it is published. We would love to link to it and include it on our website and social media.

Failure to abide by these terms may result in the revoking of your media credentials for the duration of the festival.
